

Examples from Reddit's /r/sex subreddit of misinformation or disinformation typically being upvoted and going unchallenged, along with examples of omission (e.g. no one pointing out the possibility of a preexisting condition, saying something like "doing that is a bad idea," mentioning the extreme danger of "rough" anal intercourse/insertions — including potential lethality plus likely criminality when more than one person is involved, etc.), can be seen in subreddit threads referenced below. All of the original URLs should be archived at least on web.archive.org (and some of the threads, or at least the original posts, no longer are present on Reddit; archive snapshots sometimes disappear as well). Relatedly, /r/sex has enshrined the "sex positive" bias into its posting rules.

Note: The archival date of a snapshot does not necessarily reflect the age of the original URL; some old threads might have been archived years later for instance. Furthermore, old.reddit.com is favored over www.reddit.com for newer material.
